Alessandra Bosetti, Ildegarda Cavagna, Luca Leonardi

We've been hungry, we've been weak, we've been asking for help, but nobody came, nobody could hear us yell, we've been oppressed, we've been depressed, we've been under stress, our life was a total mess because we all lacked

all the sort of things that would make our life easier, all the kind of dreams that would make our life happier, Now - Who do we blame?
this society that makes all us egoists,

our biology that made us individualists?

You can solve it with your therapist

In a world where we're meant to unite,

Non-cooperation dims the light.

When we act in isolation, We breed frustration, stagnation.
Projects stall, trust erodes, Teamwork's lost on separate roads

And I'm gonna fill forever a jar with memories
of the thing we did together to
build all of this,
and I'm standing on the ground
and feeling really proud of the people I'm with today
'cause we helped each other out

Making plans, leaders no chiefs growing plants wanna get to become wise trees
maybe bone meal can make it faster
except that bones are eachother skills

First of all when something is wrong
tell your thoughts, find a solution and mister when you listen a pov you don't agree with, don't start a beef

catch the meaning, try some empathy remember that the point is to be genuine demand others to do the same group life is like a game, same rules create a better place catch the gaze, put a smile on your face

let your ego fade away, nobody care 'biut your name do the right things even if nobody is watching
again, taking care is gonna worth it

build all of this,
