

The background features a light beige color. On the left, there is a large green circle partially overlapping a brown, irregular shape. The brown shape has a wavy top edge and a small red triangle at its bottom right corner. In the upper left, there are faint, stylized leaf patterns. At the bottom, a white wavy line curves across the page.

Letters in the name of peace

Overview

To whom are we writing?

Content of the letters

Survey of students

To whom are we writing?

Alexander van der Bellen
Federal President

Cristian Stoker
Federal Cancellor

Beate Meindl Reisinger
Minister for Foreign Affairs

Klaudia Tanner
Defense Minister

Contents of the letters

Constructive criticism

Inspiration

Inform

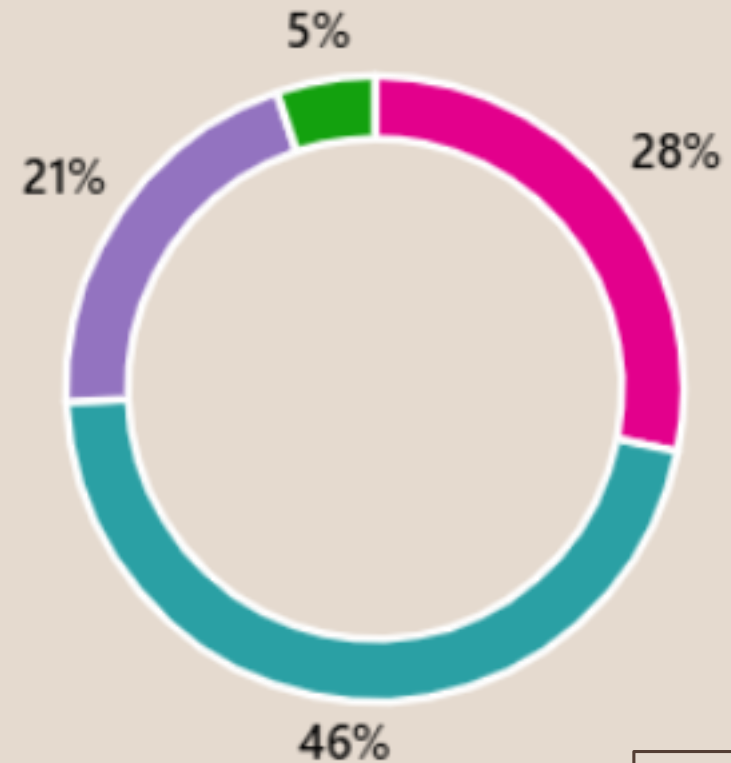

motivate action

Survey

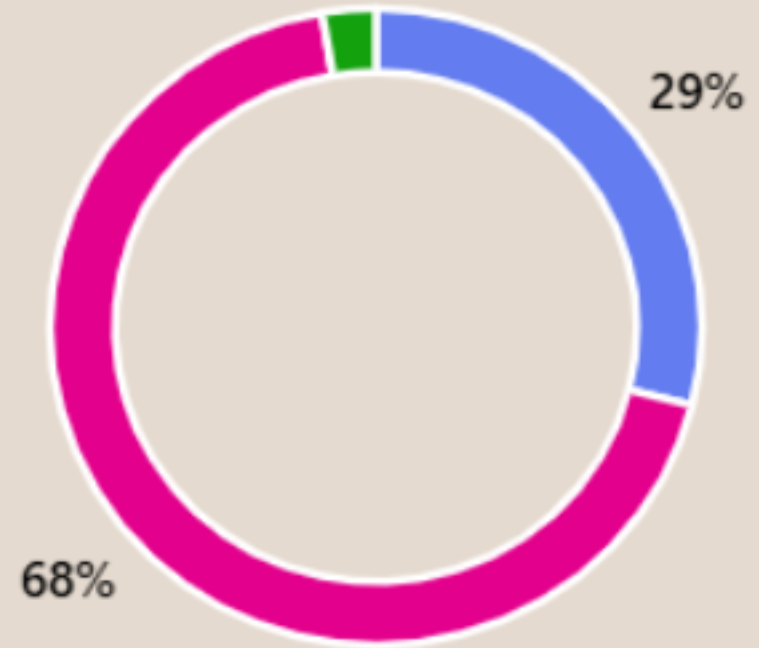

How well do you feel represented by the Austrian Politicians?

Very well
Well
Ok ayi sh
Bad
Very bad

Are you concerned about the peace in Austria and Europe?

Not at all

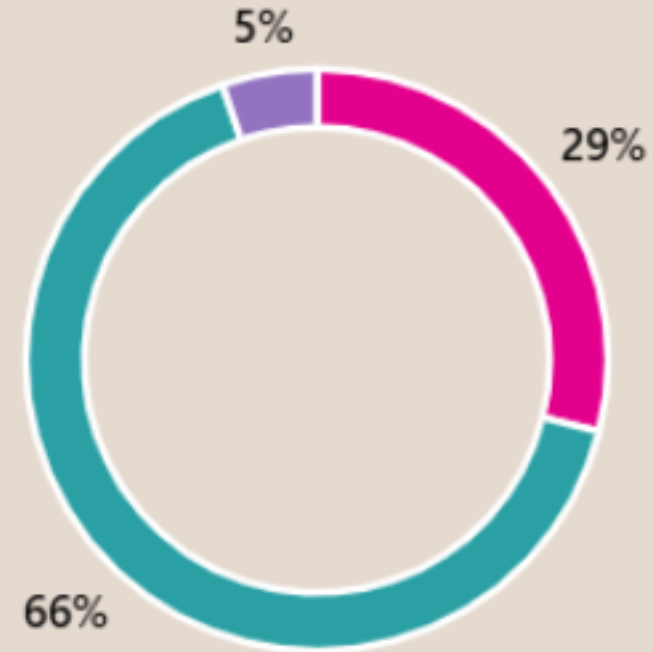

Not really

Don't really care

Yes

Yes, very much so

How understandable is the Austrian media when it comes to complex issues?

Very understandable Understandable
Acceptable
Incomprehensible
Very incomprehensible

“Mission Mitbestimmung”

Mission co-determination

What is it about?

→ Writing and illustrating a childrens book

Passing on important values Showing what democracy is Explaining political processes

The Story

Nika is a young girl who travels to different cities and worlds through a magic door.

She meets new people and experiences different adventures, on these she learns many new things.

1.1.1

What are the goals?

Reach children at a young age

Show the importance of communication and peace

What are we doing with the book?

We are working together with an elementary school and their teachers and students

There will also be a neighborhood festival, where we will present our book and read it to children

